

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Criminal No. 04-10237-NG

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

V.

RAMON DIAZ

MOTION FOR DISCHARGES OF MORTGAGES

Now comes the defendant Ramon Diaz, through undersigned counsel, and moves that this Honorable Court direct the office of Sarah Allison Thornton, Clerk for the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, to execute two Discharges of Mortgages, on forms appropriate for recording that will be filed with this motion.

As grounds for this motion, undersigned counsel states that Mr. Diaz was released from custody on or about March , 2006, subject to various conditions. His family members executed two mortgages running in favor of the Clerk for the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. The mortgages encumbered two separate in New Bedford Massachusetts, in the amounts of $14,000 and $24,000 respectively.

Mr. Diaz complied with all conditions of his release and on May 30, 2006, Mr. Diaz was acquitted of all charges pending against him. As the matter for which the mortgages were posted is now resolved, it is necessary that the mortgages be discharged at the appropriate registry of deeds to provide his family with clear title to their realty.
